Section 2 Important information about nominating reversionary beneficiaries

The following conditions apply to reversionary pensions:

- The Trustee is not bound by your nomination;
- Payments will continue to be paid to your nominated spouse until your account balanced is paid in full or it is converted to a lump sum by your nominated spouse;
- Your nomination spouse will have the option to convert the reversionary pension to a lump sum at any time;
- If your nominated spouse dies before the reversionary pension is paid in full, the balance will be paid to their estate.

You can nominate your spouse as a reversionary beneficiary. This means that he or she will continue to receive your pension payments as a tax-effective income stream (called a Reversionary Pension) upon your death. You can also nominate your child as your reversionary beneficiary if on the date of your death your child is:

- under age 18; or
- over age 18 but under age 25 and financially dependent on you; or
- permanently disabled.

Grosvenor Pirie Super, a sub-fund of the Grosvenor Pirie Master Superannuation Fund – series 2 (ABN 32 367 272 075, R1001204) is issued by Diversa Trustees Limited (ABN 49 006 421 638, RSE L0000635, AFSL 235153)

Pension payments to your child will be required to be paid as a lump sum by the time the child reaches age 25 unless the child is permanently disabled. The laws are complex and you should seek appropriate professional advice before nominating your child as a reversionary beneficiary.

If your reversionary beneficiary does not survive you, your remaining account balance will be paid at the discretion of the Trustee, taking into account any nomination of beneficiary/ies you made prior to your death. As there are different tax and social security consequences depending on who receives your pension after your death, we recommend that you seek tax and financial advice from a qualified adviser when making or changing any nomination of beneficiary.
